

Welcome to Shadyside Presbyterian Church

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, study, fellowship, and service of this congregation.

If you are a guest with us this afternoon, our ushers are available to assist you.

Gluten-free, vegan Communion wafers are available in the Narthex for those who prefer them to the regular Communion bread.

Communion will be served through the practice of intinction. As ushers release your pews, you are invited to come forward to commune. Pull off a piece of bread held by the pastor, dip the bread into the cup the elder holds, and after communing you may return to your seat using the side aisles. If you are unable to come forward, please indicate that to an usher and the elements will be brought to you.

Nursery care is available for infants through three-year-olds during worship. Pagers are available. A cry room with a video broadcast of worship is available in the Craig Room, accessible through the Narthex.

Individual listening devices for improved sound are available for those with hearing needs. Please see an usher in the Narthex.

Restrooms are located off the Narthex and can be accessed by exiting the back of the sanctuary and turning right. Additional restrooms are available at the top of the grand staircase through the Sharp Atrium.

Flower Ministry - After worship, members of the Board of Deacons' Flower Ministry divide the chancel flowers into bouquets to be distributed to individuals who are celebrating joyous occasions and to those who could use some cheer. If you would like to deliver a bouquet to someone you know, please stop by the front of the sanctuary after worship to receive one. Help us to share God's love through flowers. In observance of All Saints' Day, if you would like to receive a bouquet of flowers in honor of a departed loved one, you are welcome to come to the front of the sanctuary following this afternoon's service.

Fifth Avenue Parking - Parking on the inbound side of the block from Wilkins Avenue to Amberson Avenue is not available for parking on Sundays. Parking is available on the outbound side as well as both sides of Fifth Avenue from Amberson Avenue into Oakland. We appreciate your helpfulness utilizing these available parking areas on Sundays.

! *Please silence cellular phones and other mobile devices while in the sanctuary.
We respectfully request that no food or drink be brought into the sanctuary.*

ANTHEM

Bring Us, O Lord

William Harris

Bring us, O Lord God, at our last awakening into the house and gate of heaven. To enter that gate and dwell in that house, where there shall be no darkness nor dazzling, but one equal light; no noise nor silence, but one equal music; no fears nor hopes, but one equal possession; no ends nor beginnings, but one equal eternity; in the habitation of Thy glory and dominion, world without end. Amen.

PSALM 23

Herbert Howells

Brian Doherty, Jolanta Doherty, Lauren-Rose King, trio

The Lord is my shepherd; therefore can I lack nothing. He shall feed me in a green pasture and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort. He shall convert my soul and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff comfort me. Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me. Thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full. But Thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

REQUIEM ÆTERNAM (ONE)

Herbert Howells

Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them, Lord.

PSALM 121

Herbert Howells

Brian Doherty and George Milosh, soloists

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; He that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, He that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The LORD is thy keeper; the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil; He shall preserve thy soul. The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even forevermore.

I HEAR A VOICE FROM HEAVEN

Herbert Howells

Brian Doherty, George Milosh, Lauren-Rose King, soloists

I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Even so, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours.

PRAYER OF RESPONSE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Music Notes

Herbert Howells (1892-1983)

In 1935, Howells' son Michael died of polio at the age of nine, a tragedy which inevitably cast an immense shadow over the composer's life. Until quite recently, it was thought that the Requiem was composed in response to Michael's death, but we now know that Howells composed it in 1932 or 1933, originally intending it for the choir of King's College, Cambridge. For some reason, the music was never sent to King's, and its existence remained unknown until its eventual publication in 1980, only three years before the composer's own death. After the tragic events of 1935, Howells increasingly associated the Requiem with his lost son, so much so that, a few years later, when he was composing Hymnus Paradisi, a work specifically intended as Michael's memorial and without doubt Howells' masterpiece, he used substantial parts of the earlier Requiem, re-scoring it for soloists, large chorus, and orchestra.

Fauré and Durufié did not adhere strictly to the standard liturgy in their Requiems, and before them Brahms had gone even further in Ein Deutsches Requiem by using his own selection of texts taken from the Lutheran Bible and the Apocrypha. Though musically Howells' Requiem could scarcely be more different from the Brahms, there is perhaps a similar spirit at work in the composer's very personal choice of devotional psalms and scriptural passages from both the Catholic and Anglican liturgies for the dead.

Howells' music is much more complex than other choral music of the period, most of which still followed in the Austro-German tradition that had dominated English music for two centuries. Long, unfolding melodies are seamlessly woven into the overall textures; the harmonic language is modal, chromatic, often dissonant, and deliberately ambiguous. The overall style is free-flowing, impassioned, and impressionistic, all of which gives Howells' music a distinctive visionary quality.

The Requiem is written for unaccompanied chorus, which in places divides into double choir. There are six short movements which are organized in a carefully balanced structure. The two outer movements frame two settings of the Latin "Requiem æternam" and two psalm-settings. Howells reserves his most complex music for the Latin movements, in which he uses poly-tonality, chord-clusters, and the simultaneous use of major and minor keys. In contrast, the psalm-settings are simple and direct, the speech-rhythms of the plain chordal writing arising out of the textual inflections.

One of the earliest and most fundamental influences on Howells was Gloucester Cathedral, with its immense, vaulted spaces and glorious east window. Howells wrote of it as "a pillar of fire in my imagination." He consciously set out to mirror these essentially architectural elements of spaciousness and luminosity in his music, and these characteristics can clearly be heard in the Requiem. Significantly, the main climax of the work occurs at the words "et lux perpetua luceat eis" – "let light perpetual shine upon them" – a symbol of hope and comfort, confirmed in the closing pages by the final release of tension and the gradual transition to a simple, peaceful D major.

Mission Partner Spotlight

The mission outreach efforts of Shadyside Presbyterian Church (SPC) range from educating community youth and feeding the homeless, to international efforts of caring for orphans and promoting health care.

Open Hand Ministries (OHM) is a ministry of four churches located in Garfield and East Liberty committed to promoting justice and equality through homeownership. OHM helps to revitalize the community by converting abandoned properties into safe and energy-efficient homes. OHM also helps first-time homeowners to develop the skills which will lead them to financial stability and strength, and continues in relationship with these families long after they move in.

Shadyside volunteers help to renovate these homes, doing everything from demolition at the start of the project to painting at the end. OHM welcomes volunteers to join them on the first Saturday of each month; no prior experience required. There also are opportunities to participate in the client care teams which walk alongside the families as they prepare for homeownership and beyond. For more information about OHM, visit www.openhandpittsburgh.org.

For more information regarding the church's local, national, and international mission partners, please visit www.shadysidepres.org/serving-community.

Sunday Adventures in Music

Now in its 25th year, Sunday Adventures in Music (SAM) is a comprehensive music-training program for children in kindergarten through fifth grade. Led by Stephen Donnelly, Associate for Children's Music Education, SAM gives us an opportunity to teach children the skills necessary to participate fully in the musical life of the Christian church. Through SAM, we seek to help children develop their singing voices, learn basic skills in music literacy, and become familiar with varied traditions of sacred music from around the world. We are pleased to have included a number of children from the community on our past rosters and are always eager to reach out to new friends.

For more information and a complete schedule, contact Ellen Allston, Director of Christian Education for Children's Ministry, by e-mail at eallston@shadysidepres.org or by telephone at 412-682-4300, ext. 119.

Grief Support: Surviving the Holidays

..... Mondays, November 7 and 14, from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.

For those who have experienced the death of a loved one, the approaching holidays often bring mixed feelings of sadness, nostalgia, and even dread. On Mondays, November 7 and 14, from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m., Shadyside Presbyterian Church Care and Support Ministries will offer a two-week gathering to help you prepare for the holidays. Facilitated by the Reverend Lynn Portz and Elder Linda Fisher, these discussions will be filled with practical and uplifting ideas for the weeks ahead, and include a devotional booklet for you to take home. Please feel free to bring a family member or friend. To register for the group, speak to Rev. Lynn Portz or call the church office: 412-682-4300.

Adult Christian Education

..... Sundays at 9:45 a.m.

On Sunday mornings, the Adult Christian Education Team invites you to gather in the Sharp Atrium at 9:30 a.m. for a time of fellowship and light refreshments before attending the study of your choice.

Topical Book Study

From October 23 through November 20, eat with more intention, compassion, and gratitude as we read To The Table: A Spirituality of Food, Farming, and Community with Elder Niquelle T. Abdul-Malak and Susan W. Balaan.

Adult Bible Study

Explore Scripture in-depth in this study led by Elder Richard L. McGough III. This year, join us as we study the writings of St. John, beginning with the Gospel, continuing with the epistles, and concluding with the Book of Revelation.

Please pick up a bookmark available in the Narthex and Sharp Atrium to preview the schedule for future studies.

Thanksgiving Eve Service

..... Wednesday, November 23, at 7:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary

We have chosen to set aside this time to celebrate God's many blessings to us as a congregation. The service will include Thanksgiving hymns and a meditation by the Reverend Dr. Conrad C. Sharps. Special food donation bags will be distributed in the Narthex and Sharp Atrium on Sundays, November 13 and 20. A list of suggested non-perishable items will be attached to the bags. The bags will be received during the Thanksgiving Eve Service. If you are unable to attend the service, you may drop the bags at the church office the week of Thanksgiving. All gifts collected will be delivered to the East End Cooperative Ministry Food Pantry to replenish their food supply. Questions may be directed to the Reverend Todd E. Leach, Associate Pastor for Missions, or to any member of the Hunger and Homelessness Mission Action Community (MAC).
