

Welcome to Shadyside Presbyterian Church

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, study, fellowship, and service of this congregation.

If you are a guest with us this morning, our ushers are available to assist you.

Gluten-free, vegan Communion wafers are available in the Narthex for those who prefer them to the regular Communion bread.

Nursery care is available for infants through three-year-olds during worship. Pagers are available. A cry room with a video broadcast of worship is available in the Craig Room, accessible through the Narthex.

Children in Worship – At 11:00 a.m., families with two- and three-year-olds are welcome to report directly to the Nursery. Four-year-olds through second-graders attend worship and may exit with their teachers before the sermon to participate in chapel worship and children’s activities. (If you are a first-time guest, please accompany your child to the Chapel, and then you may return to the Sanctuary.) Parents should meet their children in the Christian education classrooms after worship. On the first Sunday of the month, first- and second-graders stay in worship through the entire service for Communion. A bulletin insert designed for children is available in the Narthex.

Prayer Request Cards – You are invited to write on a Prayer Request Card the names of those who are sick or in need of intercessory prayer.

Flower Ministry – After worship, members of the Board of Deacons’ Flower Ministry divide the chancel flowers into bouquets to be distributed to individuals who are celebrating joyous occasions and to those who could use some cheer. If you would like to deliver a bouquet to someone you know, please stop by the front of the Sanctuary after worship to receive one. Help us to share God’s love through flowers.

Individual listening devices for improved sound are available for those with hearing needs. Please see an usher in the Narthex.

Fifth Avenue Parking – Parking on the inbound side of the block from Wilkins Avenue to Amberson Avenue is not available for parking on Sunday mornings. Parking is available on the outbound side as well as both sides of Fifth Avenue from Amberson Avenue into Oakland. We appreciate your helpfulness utilizing these available parking areas on Sunday mornings.

Time of Fellowship immediately follows worship. Please join us after the service for light refreshments and an opportunity to greet each other.

! Please silence cellular phones and other mobile devices while in the Sanctuary.

Lo, how a rose e'er blooming from tender stem hath sprung! Of Jesse's lineage coming, as men of old have sung. It came, a floweret bright, amid the cold of winter, when half spent was the night.

▲ AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible;

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of the Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father by whom all things were made; who for us, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, and the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And He shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead, whose kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets. And we believe one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins. And we look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Praise, O praise such love o'erflowing.

There Is No Rose of Such Virtue

Anonymous 15th-century composer

There is no rose of such virtue as is the rose that bare Jesu; Alleluia. For in this rose contained was heaven and earth in little space; res miranda (marvelous thing). By that rose we may well see that He is God in persons three, pares forma (of equal form). The angels sungen the shepherds to: "Gloria in excelsis Deo;" gaudeamus (let us rejoice). Leave we all this worldly mirth, and follow we this joyful birth; transeamus (let us go across). Alleluia, res miranda, pares forma, gaudeamus, transeamus.

About This Morning's Music

The rose as a symbol for the Virgin Mary appears again and again in medieval English poetry and songs, which feature innumerable references to roses.

Jan Sandström (b. 1954) is among the most frequently performed Swedish composers on the international scene today. He began his musical career as a chorister, and his work list includes a large part of vocal, opera, and choral music. Different lines of composing co-exist in Sandström's music. Minimalism, Eastern philosophy, as well as the world of serialism were early influences on his music. For many years, Sandström also worked at developing the form of overtone harmony that is known as spectral analysis. His setting of the familiar "Lo, How a Rose" evokes a mystical, dream-like picture of a rose blooming in slow motion.

Strategic Prioritization

Commit your work to the LORD, and your plans will be established.

..... Proverbs 16:3 .....

On Saturday, November 5, leadership from our Elder, Trustee, and Deacon boards met with senior staff and consultant Russell Ridley, Ph.D., to begin a process of strategic prioritization for our mutual ministries over the next three to five years. I am very pleased to inform the congregation that our leadership has identified several areas in the life and ministry of our church family which we are enthusiastically beginning to explore. Our next step is to work in various task forces to identify SMART goals – that is, goals which are specific, measurable, achievable, realistic, and time-bound. The Session and various committees of all three boards will be working together to hone these goals and determine the best avenues for implementation. As the goals are refined and vetted by the Session, we will be sharing with the congregation the wonderful and exciting things we believe God is doing in our midst and calling us all to commit ourselves to accomplish. I ask you to keep our leadership and their efforts lifted to God in prayer.

In Christ's service,
Reverend Dr. Conrad C. Sharps, Senior Pastor

Sundays in Advent

..... Worship at 11:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary .....

“Advent” means “coming” or “arrival.” During the season of Advent, we celebrate Christ’s coming into the world and watch with expectant hope for His coming again. In its historical origins, the season of Advent was patterned after the season of Lent, a six-week period of penitence and preparation for Easter. Similarly, the four weeks of Advent present an opportunity for communal discernment and personal examination, as the Church prepares to celebrate the Nativity of the Lord and looks with hope for Christ’s return.
