

Welcome to Shadyside Presbyterian Church

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, study, fellowship, and service of this congregation.

If you are a guest with us this morning, our ushers are available to assist you. Following worship, we invite those who are new to the church to join us under the ficus tree in the Sharp Atrium, where representatives of our Welcome Committee will greet you and answer any questions you may have.

Nursery care is available for infants through three-year-olds during worship. Pagers are available. A cry room with an audio feed of worship is available downstairs in the Marks Room.

Children in Worship - At 11:00 a.m., families with two- and three-year-olds are welcome to report directly to the Nursery. Four-year-olds through second-graders attend worship and may exit with their teachers before the sermon to participate in children's chapel worship and Christian education. (If you are a first-time guest, please accompany your child to the Chapel before returning to the Sanctuary.) Parents should meet their children in the Christian education classrooms after worship. On the first Sunday of the month, all children are invited to remain in worship through the entire service for Communion. A bulletin insert designed for children is available in the Narthex.

A video feed of worship is available in the Craig Room, accessible through the Narthex at the back of the Sanctuary.

Prayer Request Cards - You are invited to write on a Prayer Request Card the names of those who are sick or in need of intercessory prayer.

Enlarged bulletins and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the Narthex at the back of the Sanctuary. Please see an usher for assistance.

Fifth Avenue Parking - Parking on the inbound side of the block from Wilkins Avenue to Amberson Avenue is not available on Sunday mornings. Parking is available on the outbound side as well as both sides of Fifth Avenue from Amberson Avenue into Oakland. We appreciate your helpfulness utilizing these available parking areas on Sunday mornings.

Time of Fellowship immediately follows worship. Please join us after the service for light refreshments and an opportunity to greet each other.

! Please silence cellular phones and other mobile devices while in the Sanctuary.

Order of Worship

The service of worship begins with the music of the prelude.

Through its power and brilliance, may you feel the majesty and glory of God; in its quietness, His peace.

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT CANDLES AND CALL TO WORSHIP

F. Scott Boni and Laura C. Duncan

Leader: Watch and wait for Christ's coming, remembering the faithful promises of God. We light the first candle in hope. We light the second candle for peace. With the psalmist we sing praise:

People: Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who alone does wondrous things. Blessed be His glorious name forever; may His glory fill the whole earth. Amen and Amen.

Leader: May this light be a sign to us and to the world that the Kingdom of God is near.

People: God of promise, God of peace, into our darkness come.

ORISON

Lift Up Your Heads

William Mathias

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD of Hosts. He is the King of glory.

Text: Psalm 24:7-10 (KJV)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (spoken in unison)

O God of Love, You are ever with us, upholding and guiding us. Yet we are so inclined to wander far from You. The more we wander, the more desperate we become for the joy and peace of Your presence. We pray that You would seek us in our loneliness, and that You would find us in our hiding places. Then, in Your mercy, grant us Your forgiveness. Gather us back into Your fold and set our feet upon Your paths. This day, may we prepare our hearts and make room for the advent of our Lord, even Jesus Christ Your Son.

SILENT CONFESSION

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE (sung in unison)

St. Louis (Hymn no. 44)

O holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray; cast out our sin and enter in, be born in us today. We hear the Christmas angels the great glad tidings tell; O come to us, abide with us, our Lord Emmanuel.

Text: Phillips Brooks, 1868

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the good news of the Gospel:

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

▲ CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE (sung in unison)

Antioch (Hymn no. 40)

Text: Isaac Watts, 1719; alt.

Children who are participating in children's worship activities are invited to leave through the Sharp Atrium door. (If you are a first-time guest, please accompany your child to the Chapel before returning to the Sanctuary.)

ANTHEM

Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming

Heinrich von Herzogenberg

Christopher Lynch, tenor

A rod shall come forth from the stem of Jesse. A branch shall come from out of its roots; the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him, the spirit of wisdom and truth. Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming from tender stem hath sprung! Of Jesse's lineage coming, as men of old have sung. It came, a flower bright, amid the cold of winter, when half-gone was the night. Isaiah 'twas foretold it, the Rose I have in mind; with Mary we behold it, the virgin mother kind. To show God's love aright, she bore to men a Savior, when half-gone was the night.

Savior of the Nations, Come

Nun komm, der Heiden Heiland

▲ AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Reverend Todd E. Leach

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Mission Partner Spotlight

The mission of Pennsylvania Organization for Women in Early Recovery (POWER) is to help women reclaim their lives from the disease of addiction to alcohol and other drugs, and to reduce the incidence of addiction in future generations. The organization is inspired by a vision of a day when all women struggling with addiction will embrace the journey and realize the promises of recovery, enhancing and strengthening relationships with children, family, and community.

Shadyside’s Community Partnerships Mission Action Community (MAC) at times collects items for welcome bags for each woman when she arrives at POWER. Along with the women of Sojourner House, POWER families also have been included in our “Giving Tree” program, an annual project coordinated by the Community Partnerships MAC to provide new pajamas and slippers for Christmas. In addition, through your generous support, Shadyside sponsors art therapy programs for women from both of these mission partners.

For more information, visit www.power-recovery.com. To join the efforts of the Community Partnerships MAC, contact the Reverend Todd E. Leach, Associate Pastor for Missions.

Book Collection for Parents of HOPE - The Foundation of HOPE gives interested parents and grandparents in the Allegheny County Jail the opportunity to read and record a book or books for their children and sends the books and recordings on to the children's homes. This program allows HOPE's Pre-Release participants to stay in contact with their children while promoting literacy. The Community Partnerships Mission Action Community (MAC) accepts new books for all ages, from 0 to 18, but we are currently most in need of board books and picture books. A collection basket is located by the Westminster Place entrance to the Sharp Atrium; book donations are welcome and appreciated at any time, but we extend a special invitation to consider participating in this collection during the month of December as the holidays approach.

Thursday Evening Bible Study - You are invited to participate in a Bible study focusing on the book of Ecclesiastes. We typically gather from 8:00 to 9:30 p.m. on Thursdays in the Stamy Room. Our next meeting is Thursday, December 19. Join us as we continue to build community through study. For more information, please contact Deacon Adam Loucks through the church office.

For those who make year-end gifts, please remember the church in your giving. Both pledges and gifts must be received by noon on December 31 in order to be included in this year. Looking ahead, if you have not made your pledge for 2020, please do so by completing one of the pledge forms in the pews and placing it in the offering plate or sending it to the church office.

Supper with a Scholar - Each year, Shadyside Presbyterian Church's Howard C. Both may be purchased through the church office; order forms are available in the Narthex and on the church website.

Letters of joys and concerns are on the table in the Narthex. Please take time to sign the letters.

Prayer Gatherings occur on Tuesdays from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m., and on Thursdays from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. You are invited to join us for a time of silent and spoken prayers, as we bring our concerns before God. If you cannot be with us in person, we encourage you to remember the congregation in your prayers at these same times. This is one of the many ways we can express our care for one another.

PrayerNet complements our ongoing prayer groups by lifting up urgent prayer requests. If you or a loved one are in need of urgent prayer, or if you would like to become a PrayerNet prayer partner to help lift up these requests, email member Krissy Moehling at prayernet@shadysidepres.org. Electronic copies of the bulletin also are available, as well as additional information about the church’s many programs, activities, and events.

About the Cover Artwork

Los Angeles artist John August Swanson is noted for his finely detailed, brilliantly colored paintings and original prints. His works are found in the Smithsonian’s National Museum of American History, London’s Tate Gallery, the Vatican Museums’ Collection of Modern Religious Art, and other prestigious venues. The largest collection of Swanson’s work – more than fifty pieces – is displayed at Emory University’s Candler School of Theology in Atlanta.

The son of a Mexican mother and a Swedish father, Swanson is influenced by the folk art traditions of those two countries. He also is interested in the way Byzantine and medieval works of art, such as mosaics and stained glass windows, communicated the stories of the Old and New Testaments to people of different times and places. Many of his works are visual narratives consisting of numerous panels, each panel showing a scene from the story. A Visit is the first scene in a six-segment triptych known as “the Birth Narrative,” which depicts the familiar Advent and Christmas texts from the Gospels of Matthew and Luke.

Most of Swanson’s works are serigraphs, which are made with a screen of fabric stretched tightly across a rectangular frame. Designs are created in stencil form on the screen, allowing ink to be moved through to the paper below. A separate screen must be made for each of the colors printed on the serigraph. Swanson’s serigraphs are unusually complex, not only in their detail but also in the number of stencils used. A Visit, for example, required sixty-one stencils.

When reflecting on his art, John Swanson often returns to the idea of “seeing the sacred in the ordinary.” His art explores how everyday life is filled with the divine and how those going about their daily tasks have God living within them. The artist-writer Gertrude Mueller Nelson writes that John’s art is, “about infusing the world with a vision of the holy and discovering the divine in the earthly task at hand.” This is the inspiration for John’s creative vision and the driving force for his art.

In A Visit, there are over twenty scenes of people doing ordinary work, like baking bread, and there are also over twenty scenes taken from other Biblical stories, like Daniel and David, in addition to the passage from Luke relating the Annunciation to Mary by the angel Gabriel. Swanson depicts Mary not only as part of her Galilean community, but also as part of the narrative of God’s people of all times and places – a great community of faith, to which we, too, belong.
