

Welcome to Shadyside Presbyterian Church

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, study, fellowship, and service of this congregation.

If you are a guest with us this morning, our ushers are available to assist you. Following worship, we invite those who are new to the church to join us under the ficus tree in the Sharp Atrium, where representatives of our Welcome Committee will greet you and answer any questions you may have.

Nursery care is available for infants through three-year-olds during worship. Pagers are available. A cry room with an audio feed of worship is available downstairs in the Marks Room.

Children in Worship - At 11:00 a.m., families with two- and three-year-olds are welcome to report directly to the Nursery. Four-year-olds through second-graders attend worship and may exit with their teachers before the sermon to participate in children's chapel worship and Christian education. (If you are a first-time guest, please accompany your child to the Chapel before returning to the Sanctuary.) Parents should meet their children in the Christian education classrooms after worship. On the first Sunday of the month, all children are invited to remain in worship through the entire service for Communion. A bulletin insert designed for children is available in the Narthex.

A video feed of worship is available in the Craig Room, accessible through the Narthex at the back of the Sanctuary.

Flower Ministry - After worship, members of the Board of Deacons' Flower Ministry divide the chancel flowers into bouquets to be distributed to individuals who are celebrating joyous occasions and to those who could use some cheer. If you would like to deliver a bouquet to someone you know, please stop by the front of the Sanctuary after worship to receive one. Help us to share God's love through flowers.

Prayer Request Cards - You are invited to write on a Prayer Request Card the names of those who are sick or in need of intercessory prayer.

Enlarged bulletins and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the Narthex at the back of the Sanctuary. Please see an usher for assistance.

Fifth Avenue Parking - Parking on the inbound side of the block from Wilkins Avenue to Amberson Avenue is not available on Sunday mornings. Parking is available on the outbound side as well as both sides of Fifth Avenue from Amberson Avenue into Oakland. We appreciate your helpfulness utilizing these available parking areas on Sunday mornings.

Time of Fellowship immediately follows worship. Please join us after the service for light refreshments and an opportunity to greet each other.

! Please silence cellular phones and other mobile devices while in the Sanctuary.

Order of Worship

The service of worship begins with the music of the prelude.

Through its power and brilliance, may you feel the majesty and glory of God; in its quietness, His peace.

PRELUDE

Five Advent Preludes

Raymond Weidner

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT CANDLES AND CALL TO WORSHIP

Victoria G. Wellstead Murphy and Jacob G. Wilson

Leader: Watch and wait for Christ's coming, remembering the faithful promises of God. We light the first candle in hope. We light the second candle for peace. We light the third candle in joy. With Mary we proclaim:

People: “My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior.”

Leader: May this light be a sign to us and to the world that even the desert places of our lives shall rejoice and blossom.

People: God of promise, God of joy, into our darkness come.

▲ HYMN IN PROCESSION 13

Prepare the Way

Bereden väg för Herran

▲ PRAYER OF ADORATION

The Reverend Lynn M. Portz

ORISON

Russell Schulz-Widmar

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be, world without end. Magnificat!

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (spoken in unison)

Almighty and Merciful God, we have sinned and strayed from Your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the desires of our own hearts and offended You. We have not done those things we ought to have done, and we have done things that displease You. O Lord, have mercy upon us. May we prepare our hearts and make room for the advent of our Lord. Restore us in Christ, that we may live a holy, just, and humble life, to the glory of Your holy name.

SILENT CONFESSION

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE (sung in unison)

St. Louis (Hymn no. 44)

O holy Child of Bethlehem, descend to us, we pray; cast out our sin and enter in, be born in us today. We hear the Christmas angels the great glad tidings tell; O come to us, abide with us, our Lord Emmanuel.

Text: Phillips Brooks, 1868

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Believe the good news of the Gospel:
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

▲ CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE (sung in unison)

Antioch (Hymn no. 40)

No more let sins and sorrows grow, nor thorns infest the ground; He comes to make His blessings flow far as the curse is found, far as the curse is found, far as, far as the curse is found.

Text: Isaac Watts, 1719; alt.

During the hymn, children are invited to come forward to the baptismal font.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

The Reverend Todd E. Leach
Elder Carey A. Harris

Please refrain from taking pictures.

THE BAPTISMAL QUESTIONS

REAFFIRMATION OF BAPTISMAL VOWS

Through baptism we enter the covenant God has established. Within this covenant God gives us new life, guards us from evil, and nurtures us in love. In embracing this covenant, we choose whom we will serve, by turning from evil and turning to Jesus Christ.

THE BAPTISM

Nova Sophia Williams

PRAYER OF RESPONSE

RESPONSE (sung with the choir)

Kingdom (Hymn no. 498)

Child of blessing, child of promise, baptized with the Spirit's sign, with this water God has sealed you unto love and grace divine. Child of God, your loving Parent, learn to listen for God's call. Grow to laugh and sing and worship, trust and love God more than all.

Text: Ronald S. Cole-Turner, H. Parker Sharp Professor of Theology and Ethics, Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

At the beginning of the hymn, children who are participating in children's worship activities are invited to leave through the Sharp Atrium door. (If you are a first-time guest, please accompany your child to the Chapel before returning to the Sanctuary.)

ANTHEM

Springs in the Desert

Arthur B. Jennings

Timothy Stoddard, soloist

Say to them that are of a fearful heart, “Be strong, fear not; behold, your God will come and save you.” The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as a rose. For in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams flow in the desert. And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water. A highway shall be there, and it shall be called the way of holiness; the redeemed shall walk there, and the ransomed of the LORD shall return with songs and everlasting joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

▲ AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

PASTORAL PRAYER AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERING ANTHEM

Magnificat

Bryan Kelly

My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior. For He hath regarded the lowliness of His handmaiden. For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For He that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is His name. And His mercy is on them that fear Him throughout all generations. He hath shewed strength with His arm; He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich He hath sent empty away. He, remembering His mercy, hath holpen His servant Israel; as He promised to our forefathers, Abraham, and his seed forever. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Text: Luke 1:46-55

▲ DOXOLOGY

The First Nowell (Hymn no. 56)

Then let us all with one accord sing praises to our heav'nly Lord, that hath made heav'n and earth of nought, and with His own life our lives He hath bought. Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell. Praise to the King of Israel.

Mission Partner Spotlight

Off the Floor Pittsburgh (OFF) is a volunteer organization that helps families in Pittsburgh who are eating and sleeping on their floors because they cannot afford furniture. OFF arranges donations of furniture and furniture deliveries for these families.

Shadyside's Community Partnerships Mission Action Community (MAC) has a delivery team that works one Saturday every six to eight weeks. The MAC has held fundraisers for OFF, and individuals at Shadyside Presbyterian Church have donated furniture to OFF.

For more information, visit www.offthefloorpittsburgh.org. To join the efforts of the Community Partnerships MAC in support of OFF, contact the Reverend Todd E. Leach, Associate Pastor for Missions. The Community Partnerships MAC is still looking for a volunteer to take over the volunteer coordinator position. This team leader coordinates the logistical details to prepare for the Saturday delivery days on which a team from Shadyside works (about five to six Saturdays per year). If you would like more information about this liaison position, please contact Rev. Leach through the church office.

Christmas with the Pittsburgh Camerata

..... Today at 3:00 p.m.

At this most reflective time of year, when light and darkness are equal, the Pittsburgh Camerata, under the direction of Artistic Director Mark A. Anderson, offers the music of Christmas, sacred and secular, as a reflection of the significance this holiday inspires. Join us for the tradition, for the beauty, and for the promise of Christmas. Tickets are available at the door and cost $35 each. A $5 ticket is available to full-time students with a valid I.D.

News and Notes

If you use offering envelopes, they will be available in the Sharp Atrium today and Sundays, December 22 and 29. Please help the church to economize on mailing costs by picking up your envelopes.

The Giving Tree - The Community Partnerships Mission Action Community (MAC) thanks you for your generosity with the Giving Tree project in partnership with Sojourner House and POWER (Pennsylvania Organization for Women in Early Recovery). Gift-wrapped pajamas and slippers should be returned to the church by Sunday, December 22. Your kindness is greatly appreciated.

New SPC Video Invitation for Advent - The SPC Communications Committee has created a new video with Dr. Dalles that you can watch on the SPC website at www.shadysidepres.org. We also have posted it on the SPC Facebook page, where we hope all Facebook users will "like" it and share it with friends and neighbors. It's an easy way to invite friends to join us for Sunday worship and our special seasonal events.

Thursday Evening Bible Study - You are invited to participate in a Bible study focusing on the book of Ecclesiastes. We typically gather from 8:00 to 9:30 p.m. on Thursdays in the Stamy Room. Our next meeting is Thursday, December 19. Join us as we continue to build community through study. For more information, please contact Deacon Adam Loucks through the church office.

Book Collection for Parents of HOPE - The Foundation of HOPE gives interested parents and grandparents in the Allegheny County Jail the opportunity to read and record a book or books for their children and sends the books and recordings on to the children's homes. This program allows HOPE's Pre-Release participants to stay in contact with their children while promoting literacy. The Community Partnerships Mission Action Community (MAC) accepts new books for all ages, from 0 to 18, but we are currently most in need of board books and picture books. A collection basket is located by the Westminster Place entrance to the Sharp Atrium; book donations are welcome and appreciated at any time, but we extend a special invitation to consider participating in this collection during the month of December as the holidays approach.

Midweek Vespers will not be held on Wednesday, December 25, 2019, and Wednesday, January 1, 2020. Vespers resume on Wednesday, January 8, at 7:00 p.m. in the Chapel. These thirty-minute candlelight worship services, with Communion, offer a more intimate worship experience in the midst of our hectic lives. Nursery care is available.

Christian Education Classes will not be held at 9:45 a.m. on Sunday, December 29, 2019. Education classes for all ages will resume on Sunday, January 5, 2020, at 9:45 a.m.

Pledges and Year-End Giving - As we come to the close of the year, please consider whether you have completed paying your pledge for this calendar year. For those who make year-end gifts, please remember the church in your giving. Both pledges and gifts must be received by noon on December 31 in order to be included in this year. Looking ahead, if you have not made your pledge for 2020, please do so by completing one of the pledge forms in the pews and placing it in the offering plate or sending it to the church office.

The Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC) thanks everyone who participated in the congregational survey this fall. Bound copies of the results are available to review in the Walton Library. You may contact the PNC by email at pnc@shadysidepres.org. Please continue to pray for them as they work to discern whom God is calling to be our next senior pastor.

Nursery School Registering Students for 2020-2021 - The Shadyside Presbyterian Church Nursery School (SPCNS) offers developmentally appropriate classes on weekday mornings (September through May) for two-, three-, four-, and pre-kindergarten five-year-olds. Currently, SPCNS is accepting applications for the 2020-2021 school year. Returning students and SPC members are given preference for enrollment. Call Director Mary Lang at 412-681-6311, or visit the school's website: shadysideschool.org.

Supper with a Scholar - Each year, Shadyside Presbyterian Church's Howard C. Scharfe Endowment supports pastors in their post-graduate studies for the benefit of the Church and for the glory of God. Our speaker series invites recent recipients to share over dinner and through worship about their studies. Join us on Wednesday, January 8, when we welcome Rev. Oghene'tega Violet Swann as our next speaker during dinner at 6:00 p.m., followed by vespers in the Chapel at 7:00 p.m. Please RSVP in the Sharp Atrium.

Connections Dinner - On Wednesday, January 15, you are invited to a congregational dinner at 6:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Join us for a wonderful time to connect with one another while enjoying a delicious home-cooked meal prepared by Chef Steven Bright. Please make your reservation by signing up in the Sharp Atrium by Monday, January 13. A freewill offering will be received to offset the costs of the meal. If you are able, we hope you will stay for vespers at 7:00 p.m. Nursery care is available during vespers.

Church History and Architecture Books - Shadyside Presbyterian Church has published two books authored by Elder Timothy C. Engleman which explore the church's history and architecture in depth. Both may be purchased through the church office; order forms are available in the Narthex and on the church website.

Letters of joys and concerns are on the table in the Narthex. Please take time to sign the letters.

Prayer Gatherings occur on Tuesdays from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m., and on Thursdays from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. You are invited to join us for a time of silent and spoken prayers, as we bring our concerns before God. If you cannot be with us in person, we encourage you to remember the congregation in your prayers at these same times. This is one of the many ways we can express our care for one another.

PrayerNet complements our ongoing prayer groups by lifting up urgent prayer requests. If you or a loved one are in need of urgent prayer, or if you would like to become a PrayerNet prayer partner to help lift up these requests, email member Krissy Moehling at prayernet@shadysidepres.org. Confidentiality, if requested for names and/or situations, will be maintained.

Daily Prayer - As a part of our church-wide discipleship, we follow the daily lectionary in the Book of Common Worship Daily Prayer, which also contains prayers and intimate worship services. Feel free to pick up one of the books from the bookcase in the Parlor (accessible via the Sharp Atrium) for a suggested donation of $15. (Checks may be placed in an offering plate and made payable to "Shadyside Presbyterian Church" with "Daily Lectionary" in the memo line.) We hope you will join us on this journey of discipleship!

The Mini-Mouse - Sign up to receive our weekly e-newsletter by providing your email address when registering your attendance in the pew pad or by sending an email message to info@shadysidepres.org.

The Shadyside Presbyterian Church website, www.shadysidepres.org, provides access to audio recordings of the service of worship. Electronic copies of the bulletin also are available, as well as additional information about the church's many programs, activities, and events.

About the Cover Artwork

Los Angeles artist John August Swanson is noted for his finely detailed, brilliantly colored paintings and original prints. His works are found in the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History, London's Tate Gallery, the Vatican Museums' Collection of Modern Religious Art, and other prestigious venues. The largest collection of Swanson's work – more than fifty pieces – is displayed at Emory University's Candler School of Theology in Atlanta.

The son of a Mexican mother and a Swedish father, Swanson is influenced by the folk art traditions of those two countries. He also is interested in the way Byzantine and medieval works of art, such as mosaics and stained glass windows, communicated the stories of the Old and New Testaments to people of different times and places. Many of his works are visual narratives consisting of numerous panels, each panel showing a scene from the story. A Visit is the first scene in a six-segment triptych known as “the Birth Narrative,” which depicts the familiar Advent and Christmas texts from the Gospels of Matthew and Luke.

Most of Swanson's works are serigraphs, which are made with a screen of fabric stretched tightly across a rectangular frame. Designs are created in stencil form on the screen, allowing ink to be moved through to the paper below. A separate screen must be made for each of the colors printed on the serigraph. Swanson's serigraphs are unusually complex, not only in their detail but also in the number of stencils used. A Visit, for example, required sixty-one stencils.

When reflecting on his art, John Swanson often returns to the idea of “seeing the sacred in the ordinary.” His art explores how everyday life is filled with the divine and how those going about their daily tasks have God living within them. The artist-writer Gertrude Mueller Nelson writes that John's art is, “about infusing the world with a vision of the holy and discovering the divine in the earthly task at hand.” This is the inspiration for John's creative vision and the driving force for his art.

In A Visit, there are over twenty scenes of people doing ordinary work, like baking bread, and there are also over twenty scenes taken from other Biblical stories, like Esther and Jonah, in addition to the passage from Luke relating the Annunciation to Mary by the angel Gabriel. Swanson depicts Mary not only as part of her Galilean community, but also as part of the narrative of God's people of all times and places – a great community of faith, to which we, too, belong.

Advent Vespers: O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

..... Wednesday, December 18, at 7:00 p.m.

On the final Wednesday in Advent, Shadyside Presbyterian Church invites you to join us for an evening of music and reflection in our Sanctuary. This 45-minute candlelight Communion service includes the celebration of the Lord's Supper, music offered by Chatham Baroque and soloist Erin Schmura, and a homily from the Reverend Dr. Scott J. Hagley, Assistant Professor of Missiology at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary. Nursery care is available.
