Reading along...

If you worship with us most Sundays, you may know our worship service usually includes two bible readings before the sermon. A thing called "The Lectionary" suggests bible readings for Sunday and the pastor preaching the sermon may choose those readings as the basis for their sermon.

We may hear from:

- Hebrew Scripture
- The Book of Psalms
- The Gospels
- The Epistles (letters)

The Lectionary has SIX different bible readings listed for today. Pastor Austin has chosen three of them. She thought about using four, but decided that would be a lot. Our choir members will sing a Psalter, which uses the words of Psalm 136:1, so really, we're getting four bible readings before the sermon.

Where in the Word is the Word?

The Word can mean many things:

- The Word = God's messages for God's people
- The Word = Jesus, God's Son
- The Word = The Bible, the story of God's people
- The Word = A sermon or homily spoken

Where in the Bible do we find the scripture readings for today?

Book of the Bible	Chapter	Verses

Understanding the Message

Pastor Austin's sermon title is, "The Word of the Lord?" The messages we hear today in Isaiah, Hebrews, and Luke may make us feel uncomfortable. We may not like the things God is telling us. We may find them confusing.

Sometimes, the Bible raises more questions for us and doesn't give us the answers we hope for; and that's OK. It is OK to wonder what's going on. It's OK to ask questions and to try to understand.

The Bible was written a very long time ago. God's messages mattered then and God's messages matter now. They may mean different things to us over time, but God's Word is always important.
