What is it?

Then the Lord said to Moses, "I'm going to make bread rain down from the sky for you. The people will go out each day and gather just enough for that day." Exodus 16:4

The bread God sent was like nothing the Israelites had ever seen before. It is possible they looked at and said, "What is it?"

God's people saw the bread sent just for them and wondered what it was. They knew they could eat it and trusted God, but were still curious. The bread was called "manna."

The name manna most likely comes from the question, "man hu" which means, "What is it?"

CHALLENGE: Google the word manna after church today. What other things do you learn about it?
